GENDER POLICY

The Gender Policy of RAW MINERAL RESOURCES Co. LTD has been developed according to the vision of the Rwandan national gender policy stating that the Rwanda society has to be free from all form of gender-based discrimination and see men and women participate fully and enjoy equitably from the development process (Ministry of Gender and Family Promotion). The gender policy reflects also the ICGLR/ Regional Certification Mechanism standards against violation of women's rights and sexual violence that may occur at our mine sites or one or many of our mineral suppliers, which are mining companies and cooperatives, the mineral transportation route, the exporter/processor level in summary, all along mineral supply chain.

The gender policy of RAW MINERAL RESOURCES Co. LTD mirrors that of the government of Rwanda and the ICGLR/RCM as well as the international initiatives for gender balance and will be applied in all aspects of our company, clients, partners, and we will advise our mineral suppliers to do the same; and as when opportunity arises within the statutory safety requirements.

RAW MINERAL RESOURCES Co. LTD strives to ensure that both women and men equal opportunities at our workplace. The policy reaffirms RAW MINERAL RESOURCES Co. LTD's commitment to gender equality as enshrined in the national constitution of Rwanda as well as the regional initiatives such as Gender Mainstreaming document of the ICGLR. In addition to that the ICGLR/ Regional certification mechanism and due diligence standards for minerals sourced from conflict region and high-risk areas requires Gender balance and fight against any discrimination or violation at processor site or mine sites that RAW MINERAL RESOURCES Co. LTD is affiliating with or our main mineral suppliers or any other exporters that may sell minerals to us and we shall do whatever possible to make this policy available at workplace on the public domain.

The key indicators of this policy will be:

- Equal access to opportunities
- Equal skill remuneration
